GREETINGS! SPRING
POINT PARTNERS

This conversation card deck has been designed with you – our impact partners – in mind! We have found it to be a powerful leadership learning tool that can foster personal reflection and deepen connections within our respective circles of influence.

As a reminder, each set of questions has been curated to work progressively so that participants can ease into meaningful storytelling.

SPRING

To this end, we encourage you to use the cards in their sequence and to build in time for thinking, sharing, processing, and learning.

We hope our deck is a useful tool for your organization. As you use it, be sure to let us know what you are learning about yourself and about others!
